VOLUNTEER NEEDS:

The Drepung Loseling Monks will be arriving in town on Oct 24th. Opening ceremonies on Sunday Oct 25th. I will need a team of people to pitch in to once again and make this an outstanding event for NCC and the whole community. Below is a list of jobs that people can sign up for:

- ✿ Meals: Vegetarian lunches and dinners .. every day from Oct 25th to Nov 1st.
- ✿ Docents: Folks who can take people into the sanctuary and talk a bit about the Mandala (Don't worry, I have all the materials for you) starting on Oct 26th.
- ✿ Fliers: Volunteers to post fliers in Laguna Beach and surrounding communities
- ✿ Greeters: NCC folks to be on the door to represent the church and collect $ at the evening talks. Tuesdays though Friday (7 to 8 p.m.) and Sat. Oct 31st (10 to 4)..(morning and afternoon shifts)
- ✿ Workshop assistants for Saturday workshop Oct 31st (making your own prayer flags): We'll need folks for preparation and clean up and to assist the Monks.
- ✿ Labyrinth: Possibly Friday October 30th in the afternoon, or Sunday November 1, 8AM to 10AM and/or 2PM to 5PM (will depend on availability of volunteers).
- ✿ Drivers: Will possibly need folks to take the monks (probably up to 3 only) to house blessings occasionally.
- ✿ Potluck lunch: Sunday Oct 25th at 11:30AM (before the opening ceremonies).
- ✿ Miscellaneous: I always need extra help in unexpected places and interesting circumstances are bound to arise.
- ✿ Please attend during the week as much as possible and offer a friendly face and a warm handshake. This will make folks feel welcome and let them know how wonderful we are here at NCC!
- ✿ And one thing for sure... it's such a blessing to be around these lovely Monks!
- ✿ Please spread the word! If you are not able to do anything else, send out emails (see attached flier from post above) and verbally let people know that this fabulous event is happening right here at NCC!

At a time when it's sorely needed, this is an opportunity for healing, creating community and working together as a team... nothing better! We are bringing an incredible gift to the community, so let us work together to make it fantastic and fun!

I so appreciate the opportunity to serve in this way and thank you in advance for your help. Please email or call me or Kristen in the office with any questions or would like to sign up for any of the above positions!

In gratitude,

Pam
